

The merchants of Oakland know how to succeed. THEY ADVERTISE IN The Tribune

VOL. LV

OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA, THURSDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 6, 1902

THE TRIBUNE

prints all the news of the world on the day it happens. That is an old story, but it stands good every week day in the year.

NO. 32

SHORT WORK OF A NEGRO.

Mob Takes Him From Officers to Lynch Him.

NICHOLASVILLE, Ky., Feb. 6.—Tom Brown, the negro who assaulted Miss Della Powell yesterday, was taken from the officers this morning and repeatedly attempted to set the negro but was baffled. This morning County Attorney Mitchell, Sheriff Christman and Deputy Scott removed the negro from jail to take him to Miss Powell's home for identification.

About 100 men accompanied the officers and prisoner. Notable among them was William Bowen, brother of the girl, armed with a double barreled shotgun.

For the negro had been fully identified and as the officers were taking him back to the jail, the mob seized and lynched him in the courthouse yard before the officers could get into the jail.

Miss Powell is a student at the Jesuina Institute in this city and lives at her brother's home, about three miles north. Last evening she started home in company with the Misses Braden, who also live out of town and attend school here.

Leaving the Braden girls at their home, Miss Powell continued on foot on her way to her brother's, about half a mile further on.

After the assault, Brown, aged 19, was arrested and this morning was taken to the home of the victim who fully identified him. To make the identification doubly sure, the negro was taken to the home of the victim's mother, who was followed by a mob of 20 armed men determined that the prisoner should not be transferred to Lexington. The mob followed the carriage with a mob of 20 armed men and was reinforced by as many more on the way. When near the courthouse yard the carriage was surrounded and the mob dragged the negro from the authorities, who were helpless but made a strong resistance. Brown was hurried to the courthouse yard, where he was hanged by a rope was quickly put around his neck, thrown over the limb of a tree and he was hanged up. He was hanged to death and no one could see or hear him. The whole city turned out and all the ladies approached at the end.

ANOTHER LYNCHING. NASHVILLE, Tenn., Feb. 6.—Elderses Whitaker, colored, charged with the murder of John Doster three weeks ago, was taken from jail at Lynchburg last night and hanged by a mob.

Whitaker's case was called in court yesterday and continued.

IT IS UP TO BOER LEADERS.

THEY CAN NOW EITHER HAVE PEACE OR CONTINUE THE WAR.

LONDON, Feb. 6.—In the House of Commons today Mr. Balfour, the government leader, announced that copies of the correspondence exchanged between the government of the Netherlands and the government of Great Britain on the subject of peace in South Africa had been mailed to Lord Milner, Governor of the Transvaal and Orange River Colonies and High Commissioner of South Africa, who would be instructed to ask Lord Kitchener to communicate the contents to the Boer leaders in the field.

Mr. Chamberlain, the Colonial Secretary, added the information that if the Boer leaders refused to accept the terms of the proposals, the forces proposed to Lord Kitchener would be forwarded for the consideration of the government.

FRAUDULENT VOTING SCHEME LAID BARE.

One Man Is Charged With Bribery and Another With Felony.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—James J. Frawley, Tammany leader of the Thirty-second Assembly District, and Alderman J. J. Dietz, who were charged by the State Superintendent of Elections with having been in the head of a fraudulent voting scheme in the last general primaries in which Frawley defeated J. J. Ryan for the leadership, surrendered themselves today. They were arrested and held for a hearing. The criminal charge against Frawley was bribery and Dietz was accused of aiding and abetting illegal voting.

CAVOUR IS AFLOAT.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—The steamer Cavour, from Rio de Janeiro for New York, which went ashore at Long Beach, L. I., January 28 in a snow storm was reported early today and proceeded to this port.

Death for the Sultan's Relative Proclaimed by Turkish Court.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 6.—The Sultan's brother-in-law, Damad Mahmud Pasha, has been sentenced to death. Mahmud has long been prominent in the young Turk movement and was recently expelled from Greece at the behest of the Sultan. Mahmud went to Rome and the Sultan requested his expulsion from Italy. It was refused, but Mahmud proceeded to Paris, where he remains in safety. All the Sultan's blandishments failed to induce him to return to Constantinople and the Criminal Court was obliged to issue a warrant for Mahmud's arrest and to try the fugitive by default, with the result that he was condemned to death.

A dispatch to the Associated Press from Constantinople, dated December 18, 1899, announced that the Sultan's brother-in-law, Damad Mahmud Pasha, during the previous week, with his wife's

SOCIAL EVENT OF SEASON.

Official Society in Washington City Attends the Wedding of Payne Whitney and Miss Helen Hay.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Helen Hay, daughter of J. S. Banger, Secretary of State John Hay and Payne Whitney of New York, son of ex-Secretary of the Navy W. C. Whitney, were married today at noon at the Church of the Covenant. The wedding was the most notable social event of the season in Washington, being celebrated before the presence of the highest officials in the land, including the President and his Cabinet, and of what is recognized as the best of New York and New England society. The Hay family has been in mourning since the death of Adolbert Hay, but for this one day the mourning was put aside and the wedding was celebrated with all the pomp and circumstance that would have characterized it otherwise.

GATHERING OF GUESTS.

For several days past the guests have been gathering and preparations have been making for the wedding. The groom's father, ex-Secretary William C. Whitney, came to Washington with a party of distinguished friends, including Sir Edward Colebrooke, C. Barney, Miss Barney and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Paget, while Payne Whitney, the bridegroom, had gathered about him at the Arlington a large number of his college chums and friends.

PRESENTS WITHOUT NUMBER.

Present almost without number have been pouring into the Hay home for the last fortnight. It is believed their number exceeds four hundred, many being articles of almost priceless worth. But it has not been possible, owing to the reticence of the family, to obtain a complete list of these presents, though it is known that they include houses and lands, a yacht and jewels and articles of art without number.

CHURCH DECORATIONS.

The church where the ceremony was performed was elaborately and artistically decorated with flowers and greens. Back of the pulpit and before the altar, tall, graceful palms flanked a great bowl of dark green and beneath, like a miniature forest, a great variety of flowers. The altar itself was a masterpiece of floral art, with a beautiful floral path made up of lilies attached to the pews on either side. The walls of the church were festooned with southern smilax, topped off with great masses of Easter lilies, caught up by long white ribbons.

OFFICIAL WASHINGTON.

The church was crowded, its seating capacity is only 600, which promised badly for the 1000 persons invited. It was believed that official Washington could not be accommodated even in a small measure, so the invitations were limited to friends of the contracting families, the only exception being in the case of the diplomatic body. Even here it was not possible to include in the invitations the entire diplomatic list, and the heads of Legations and their ladies alone. So in the case of the United States, the persons invited were those who were on personal relations with the Hay and Whitney families.

BACHELOR USHERS.

The ushers were all bachelor friends of the groom, namely: Henry Clegg Jr.,

Frederick Kernochan, J. N. Waterbury, John S. Banger, Governor Morris of New York, James N. Wadsworth of Genesee, N. Y., Hugh D. Scott of Philadelphia and Major Charles L. McCawley, U. S. M. C. of Washington. Mr. Whitney's best man was Eugene Hale Jr., son of the senior Senator from Maine.

NEITHER JEWELS NOR LACE.

The bride was assisted by two maids, her sister Alice Hay and Dorothy Whitney, the 15-year-old sister of the bridegroom. They were prettily gowned in gray crepe de chine made over white silk and wore great picture hats of white felt with large white ostrich plumes. The bride wore neither jewels nor lace and her "veil" was one of extreme simplicity, consisting of a gown of plain white satin completed by a tulle veil hanging in place by a coronet of orange blossoms.

MUSICAL PROGRAM.

A beautiful feature of the wedding was the musical program which had been arranged by the Hay sisters. Four of the six numbers were selections from Wagner. The music was as follows: "The Pilgrim Chorus" and "The Evening Star" from "Tristan and Isolde"; "Processional March of the Master Singers" and the "Prize Song" from "Die Meistersinger"; "Wedding March" by Dudley Buck; "The Swan Song" from "The Swan"; and the introduction to "Lohengrin" and a march "Midsummer Night's Dream" by Mendelssohn.

THE PRESIDENT ARRIVES.

Half an hour before noon the church was well filled with guests, and as the hour of 12 approached not a seat was vacant. The President and Mrs. Roosevelt came early with Mrs. Roosevelt and his daughter Alice. On either side of the Presidential party were the relatives and immediate friends of the bride and groom, and close behind were the members of the President's Cabinet. The diplomatic corps were seated in the center of the church, the place of honor being held by Lord Pauncefoot, the British Ambassador, with the heads of other Legations and the Embassies and Missions to Washington.

THE CEREMONY.

The organist was softly playing the "Prize Song" from "Die Meistersinger" as the hour of 12 struck. Immediately the soft notes gave way to the splendid refrain of the hymn "The Church's One Foundation" and the bride and groom entered the church and moved down the aisle. Miss Hay leaned upon the arm of her father and her maids followed closely. The bride was preceded by the ushers to the platform, where the bridegroom with his best man, Mr. Whitney, stood. Hamilton led the service and the responses were made in low but firm voices by both bride and groom.

THE WEDDING BREAKFAST.

The carriages of the bride party were driven directly to the Hay residence, where an elaborate wedding breakfast had been spread. The guests were limited much more closely than in the admissions to the church, and besides the President with Mrs. Roosevelt, the diplomatic corps, the friends of the bride and groom, and the friends of the bride and groom, the house was artistically decorated with flowers and plants. Mr. and Mrs. Whitney left in a private car on a short wedding tour during the afternoon, and it is believed their destination was Thomasville, Ga.

Showed Signs of Hydrophobia and Finally Died of Lockjaw.

Leslie G. White, the 5-year-old child who died in Golden Gate on Tuesday last, came to his death in a peculiar way.

The case has puzzled the attending physicians, who are inclined to believe that the cause of death was lockjaw.

Last Thanksgiving the young lad was kicked in the face by a horse. A gash an inch and a half was cut from the top of the ear to the cheek bone. The wound was dressed and healed to all intents and purposes.

About two months later a sort of facial paralysis set in, ending in a case of lockjaw.

Water was poison to the young sufferer's lips, yet the child craved it all the time. When the water was placed to his lips a species of hydrophobia was produced, and the jaws would close tightly. The little patient was unable to eat food or absorb liquid nourishment during the last two weeks of his illness. The attending physicians are very much puzzled by the case.

Eleven Lives Are Lost By an Explosion in a New York Shop

CHICAGO, Feb. 6.—It is believed that eleven is the correct number of people who lost their lives by the explosion of gas in the Trotter butcher shop at 354 Twenty-second street, last night. The bodies, charred past human semblance in the majority of cases, lay at a near-by morgue today, while foremen, assisted by laborers, still dug in the ruins on the bare possibility that more bodies might be under the debris. Fire Chief Musham today declared his belief that the explosion was that of a pocket of gas. A force of laborers was put at work at day-break tearing up and repairing the gas pipes which figure in the two explosions which followed that in the butcher shop. When the Coroner learned of it he ordered the work stopped.

"I want no changes in present conditions made, unless necessary, until I have investigated fully to discover if negligence was in any way responsible for the loss of life," said the Coroner.

The following is believed to be a correct list of the dead: OTTO TROSTEL, owner of the butcher shop; AUGUSTA TROSTEL, wife of above; OTTO TROSTEL JR., aged 11 years; ANNA TROSTEL, 12; LENA TROSTEL, 13; MINNIE TROSTEL, 3; BABY TROSTEL, 2; FRID TROSTEL, nephew of Otto Trostel; SOPHIA KNEIPP, niece of Mrs. Trostel; MARY ROSENTHAL, 22, a neighbor visiting the shop; OTTO GUERMAN, employee in butcher shop.

The following is believed to be a correct list of the dead: OTTO TROSTEL, owner of the butcher shop; AUGUSTA TROSTEL, wife of above; OTTO TROSTEL JR., aged 11 years; ANNA TROSTEL, 12; LENA TROSTEL, 13; MINNIE TROSTEL, 3; BABY TROSTEL, 2; FRID TROSTEL, nephew of Otto Trostel; SOPHIA KNEIPP, niece of Mrs. Trostel; MARY ROSENTHAL, 22, a neighbor visiting the shop; OTTO GUERMAN, employee in butcher shop.

MINISTER OF INSTRUCTION IS ASSASSINATED

SOFIA, Feb. 6.—M. Kamitcheva, the Minister of Public Instruction, was assassinated today in his study by a Macedonian, who pretended he wanted to present a petition. The assassin subsequently committed suicide by shooting himself.

ROAST FOR THE JUDGE.

Defense Makes Governor Taft Tells How the Natives Feel Towards the United States.

ALBUQUERQUE, Feb. 6.—The morning session of court was a succession of roasts, counsel attacked each other and Judge Harrington came in for scathing remarks at the hands of counsel for the defense, they claiming he was trying to shut out every iota of evidence of any benefit to the defendant.

As soon as court opened Judge Harrington declared that the defense was keeping witnesses in Albuquerque at the expense of the county when counsel knew they would not call them to the stand, and asserted that at least one witness was subpoenaed by the defense with the view of keeping him out of the court-room and for no other purpose.

Counsel for the defense denied the accusation vehemently.

Mrs. Mollie Rucker was called to the stand and testified.

Spencer, addressing the Court said: "You might as well take the defendant out and hang him. You shut out every bit of evidence in favor."

Court: Yes, and some think counsel ought to be hanged, too.

DOWNFALL OF BIG SAM.

STARTED TO MAKE MINCE MEAT OF THE POLICE DEPARTMENT.

Crash! Crash! R-u-m-ble! blif, bong, bang!

Sounds of breaking glass, smashing crockery, overturning furniture, mingled with oaths in two or three languages of Southern Europe, shuffling feet and other noises indicative of a red-hot time came from the Universal Restaurant on Seventh street, near Washington, in the small hours of Tuesday morning.

Several ran out shouting and gesticulating, and two more lunged a stark body to the sidewalk, but the insensibility was only due to a good punch and a stout libation of red wine.

Officers Hamerton and Lynch heard the racket, and rushed in to find a large Slavonian known as Big Sam engaged in smashing everything in sight. He was hitting the proprietors, guests and furniture with impartial gusto. Watching their chance they tripped him up and handcuffed him for convenient transportation to the City Prison. There he was dumped into the drunk cell and left to sleep off his potations. In the afternoon Desk Sergeant Curtiss had a trusty to wake him up as some friends wanted to give him a good thrashing.

Big Sam woke up all right. As he did so he nearly put the trusty to sleep with a single blow. He was dragged out into the corridor and told to behave himself, but his only response was to smile and hit the trusty with a pie. Then Curtiss worked the drum major's chair with the loudest on Sam's head till it rang like a hurricane of corn beef. When he was sufficiently quiet he was dumped back in the cell.

Later he was bailed out by friends. Yesterday the bar was again the scene of the event is as follows: "Sam, Kirchner, drunk, hit 8; forfeited."

Today Sam's face looks as if it had been hit with a pile driver.

RACES AT EMERYVILLE

ADMIRAL SCHLEY WELL RECEIVED.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Feb. 6.—This forenoon Admiral and Mrs. Schley visited the University of Tennessee. They held a levee in Science Hall auditorium, where the divorce of his sister, Senha Sultana, was being presented by the students. Mrs. Schley was entertained informally at the Woman's Building at the University. This afternoon a reception was tendered Admiral and Mrs. Schley by the local Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and later Admiral Schley unveiled and dedicated a marble marker on the site of the first blockhouse or fort built by the first settlers of Knoxville. The blockhouse stood on the present Court House square. The marker bears the inscription:

"Site of First Blockhouse, 1722. Erected by Bonnie Kate Chapter, D. A. R. Dedicated."

"Admiral Schley, Feb. 6th, 1902. Tonight a reception will be tendered Admiral Schley by the Cumberland Club. Admiral and Mrs. Schley will leave tomorrow for Washington."

Admiral Schley has not been suffering from a severe cold he would have visited the birthplace of Farragut today.

FILIPINOS AND UNCLE SAM.

Governor Taft Tells How the Natives Feel Towards the United States.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Governor Taft appeared before the Senate Committee on the Philippines with the intention of taking up the Philippine tariff bill, and of devoting his attention to the revenue and tariff conditions of the Philippine Islands, but before beginning with the subject he replied to a number of questions by Senator Carmack bearing upon subjects heretofore covered by the Governor in his testimony before the committee. Mr. Carmack quoted from the report of General MacArthur of 1900 to the effect that there is substantial unity among the Filipino people in their opposition to the United States. Replying Governor Taft said the commission had not originally accepted the general's conclusion and that the commission's tour of the archipelago had convinced them that they were correct in their conclusion.

"That the people of the Philippine Islands were much aroused I do not doubt," he continued, "but the opposition does not continue in its general aspect. Since the second election of President McKinley the great majority of the people of the Philippines have been favorable to peace and to the acceptance of the sovereignty of the United States and it would be impossible to continue the present system of guerrilla warfare without the system of terrorism which now prevails. This is my conclusion, and in so far as the statement differs from General MacArthur's report to that extent I differ from him."

Governor Taft said that he also differed from General Taft on the point of the general desire of the inhabitants to maintain hostility in Batangas; he did not believe the common people felt so inclined.

Taking up the question of the tariff, Governor Taft explained the present system of taxation in the Philippines, saying that under the decision of the Supreme Court, no duties are now being collected on articles going into the islands from the United States. The plan of the commission is to have no international system of taxation for the support of the general government of these islands. Under the Spanish system there was a general tax upon the business of the islands, while the receipt from the customs were only about $5,000,000. Even the children were under that system. Under a Spanish system there was also a tax upon the business of the islands, and that system had been continued to an extent by the commission. The commission also had decided to maintain the poll tax to the extent of $1 per head on adult males, but to apply it only to paying the governmental expenses of the towns and the provinces. The people of the islands had generally urged the imposition of the poll tax as necessary to get the Spanish system to work. Under the Spanish regime the plan had been used to enforce a sort of slavery.

Under a Spanish system there was also a tax upon the business of the islands, and that system had been continued to an extent by the commission. The commission also had decided to maintain the poll tax to the extent of $1 per head on adult males, but to apply it only to paying the governmental expenses of the towns and the provinces. The people of the islands had generally urged the imposition of the poll tax as necessary to get the Spanish system to work. Under the Spanish regime the plan had been used to enforce a sort of slavery.

Under a Spanish system there was also a tax upon the business of the islands, and that system had been continued to an extent by the commission. The commission also had decided to maintain the poll tax to the extent of $1 per head on adult males, but to apply it only to paying the governmental expenses of the towns and the provinces. The people of the islands had generally urged the imposition of the poll tax as necessary to get the Spanish system to work. Under the Spanish regime the plan had been used to enforce a sort of slavery.

Under a Spanish system there was also a tax upon the business of the islands, and that system had been continued to an extent by the commission. The commission also had decided to maintain the poll tax to the extent of $1 per head on adult males, but to apply it only to paying the governmental expenses of the towns and the provinces. The people of the islands had generally urged the imposition of the poll tax as necessary to get the Spanish system to work. Under the Spanish regime the plan had been used to enforce a sort of slavery.

Under a Spanish system there was also a tax upon the business of the islands, and that system had been continued to an extent by the commission. The commission also had decided to maintain the poll tax to the extent of $1 per head on adult males, but to apply it only to paying the governmental expenses of the towns and the provinces. The people of the islands had generally urged the imposition of the poll tax as necessary to get the Spanish system to work. Under the Spanish regime the plan had been used to enforce a sort of slavery.

WOMEN ARGUE ON THE COLOR QUESTION.

Mrs. Bulkley of Oakland is Elected President of Federation.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 6.—Three attractive features on the morning program of the club women's State convention served to pack Golden Gate Hall until standing room only was obtainable.

This trial of drawing cards consisted of the election of officers, a discussion of the reorganization subject and an expression of views on the question of admitting colored clubs to the general federation.

The convention was called to order at 9:30 o'clock. An amendment was adopted. Mrs. Wm. Sisson of Los Angeles opened the discussion on reorganization. She traced the upbuilding of the General Federation, which now embraces thirty-eight State organizations and about 70 individual clubs, and explained that the Federation had grown so large that reorganization is necessary.

"If we are to have the individual club," said Mrs. Lee, "we force it to seek enrollment in the State Federation. This would inevitably result in a system of concentration that could not help the small clubs. I object to the plan of reorganization by States. Clubs will not be accepted by the Southern clubs."

Mrs. E. O. Smith of San Jose opened the question from the other side. "We are on the proposed admission of colored clubs to the general Federation," she said. "I have read a report which provoked much animated discussion."

The proposed amendments to the constitution and by-laws were read section by section and each of them was more or less questioned.

A position to increase the per capita assessment for Federation maintenance brought out a regular volley of substitutes and amendments to the original amendment, and at least a score of delegates spoke on the question.

All amendments were adopted. Mrs. Wm. Sisson of Los Angeles opened the discussion on reorganization. She traced the upbuilding of the General Federation, which now embraces thirty-eight State organizations and about 70 individual clubs, and explained that the Federation had grown so large that reorganization is necessary.

"If we are to have the individual club," said Mrs. Lee, "we force it to seek enrollment in the State Federation. This would inevitably result in a system of concentration that could not help the small clubs. I object to the plan of reorganization by States. Clubs will not be accepted by the Southern clubs."

Mrs. E. O. Smith of San Jose opened the question from the other side. "We are on the proposed admission of colored clubs to the general Federation," she said. "I have read a report which provoked much animated discussion."

The proposed amendments to the constitution and by-laws were read section by section and each of them was more or less questioned.

A position to increase the per capita assessment for Federation maintenance brought out a regular volley of substitutes and amendments to the original amendment, and at least a score of delegates spoke on the question.

All amendments were adopted. Mrs. Wm. Sisson of Los Angeles opened the discussion on reorganization. She traced the upbuilding of the General Federation, which now embraces thirty-eight State organizations and about 70 individual clubs, and explained that the Federation had grown so large that reorganization is necessary.

"If we are to have the individual club," said Mrs. Lee, "we force it to seek enrollment in the State Federation. This would inevitably result in a system of concentration that could not help the small clubs. I object to the plan of reorganization by States. Clubs will not be accepted by the Southern clubs."

Mrs. E. O. Smith of San Jose opened the question from the other side. "We are on the proposed admission of colored clubs to the general Federation," she said. "I have read a report which provoked much animated discussion."

The proposed amendments to the constitution and by-laws were read section by section and each of them was more or less questioned.

A position to increase the per capita assessment for Federation maintenance brought out a regular volley of substitutes and amendments to the original amendment, and at least a score of delegates spoke on the question.

All amendments were adopted. Mrs. Wm. Sisson of Los Angeles opened the discussion on reorganization. She traced the upbuilding of the General Federation, which now embraces thirty-eight State organizations and about 70 individual clubs, and explained that the Federation had grown so large that reorganization is necessary.

"If we are to have the individual club," said Mrs. Lee, "we force it to seek enrollment in the State Federation. This would inevitably result in a system of concentration that could not help the small clubs. I object to the plan of reorganization by States. Clubs will not be accepted by the Southern clubs."

Mrs. E. O. Smith of San Jose opened the question from the other side. "We are on the proposed admission of colored clubs to the general Federation," she said. "I have read a report which provoked much animated discussion."

The proposed amendments to the constitution and by-laws were read section by section and each of them was more or less questioned.

A position to increase the per capita assessment for Federation maintenance brought out a regular volley of substitutes and amendments to the original amendment, and at least a score of delegates spoke on the question.

All amendments were adopted. Mrs. Wm. Sisson of Los Angeles opened the discussion on reorganization. She traced the upbuilding of the General Federation, which now embraces thirty-eight State organizations and about 70 individual clubs, and explained that the Federation had grown so large that reorganization is necessary.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—James D. Phelan, recently Mayor of San Francisco and one of the California Commissioners appointed by the Governor to represent the State before committees of Congress here, was a witness before the House Committee on Foreign Affairs today.

Referring to a statement by Minister Wu that "labor agitators were behind the Chinese movement," Mr. Phelan detailed the overwhelming sentiment on the Pacific Coast in favor of exclusion as shown by the referendum votes, a unanimous press, unanimous delegation in Congress and unanimous exclusion convention.

On the other side, he said, were the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, the Canadian Railways, the Chinese Diplomatic representatives, several attorneys and returned missionaries, who urged no public reason for the admission of Chinese, and who had finally agreed to the renewal of the Geary law for two years, because in case of a decision by the Supreme Court favorable to them, the law will be valueless, for when it was designed by Congress, viz: "The Exclusion of the Chinese Coolie Labor." We are dealing with people who are trained to the evasion of the law and for twenty years the government has been endeavoring to circumvent their evasion.

"The attorneys for the Chinese advocate re-enactment of the Geary law for two years, because in case of a decision by the Supreme Court favorable to them, the law will be valueless, for when it was designed by Congress, viz: "The Exclusion of the Chinese Coolie Labor." We are dealing with people who are trained to the evasion of the law and for twenty years the government has been endeavoring to circumvent their evasion.

"The attorneys for the Chinese advocate re-enactment of the Geary law for two years, because in case of a decision by the Supreme Court favorable to them, the law will be valueless, for when it was designed by Congress, viz: "The Exclusion of the Chinese Coolie Labor." We are dealing with people who are trained to the evasion of the law and for twenty years the government has been endeavoring to circumvent their evasion.

"The attorneys for the Chinese advocate re-enactment of the Geary law for two years, because in case of a decision by the Supreme Court favorable to them, the law will be valueless, for when it was designed by Congress, viz: "The Exclusion of the Chinese Coolie Labor." We are dealing with people who are trained to the evasion of the law and for twenty years the government has been endeavoring to circumvent their evasion.

"The attorneys for the Chinese advocate re-enactment of the Geary law for two years, because in case of a decision by the Supreme Court favorable to them, the law will be valueless, for when it was designed by Congress, viz: "The Exclusion of the Chinese Coolie Labor." We are dealing with people who are trained to the evasion of the law and for twenty years the government has been endeavoring to circumvent their evasion.

"The attorneys for the Chinese advocate re-enactment of the Geary law for two years, because in case of a decision by the Supreme Court favorable to them, the law will be valueless, for when it was designed by Congress, viz: "The Exclusion of the Chinese Coolie Labor." We are dealing with people who are trained to the evasion of the law and for twenty years the government has been endeavoring to circumvent their evasion.

NEW HOSPITAL.

This afternoon a deed was recorded in which the Union Savings Bank conveyed to Archbishop Riordan a large block of land in North Oakland for the new Catholic hospital.

The Oakland College of Medicine and Surgery is interested in the new hospital. THE TRIBUNE recently had an account of the plans for the hospital.

TRAFFIC IN EXEMPTIONS FROM MILITARY SERVICE.

Judgment Is Delivered in the Case of Thirteen Accused People.

ELBERFELD, Rhineland Prussia, Feb. 6.—Judgment was delivered today in the case of thirteen persons accused of being concerned in the traffic in exemptions from military service. Baumann, the originator of the scheme, was sentenced to twenty-six months imprisonment and to five years loss of civil rights. The other defendants were discharged.

DEATH OF A NOTED ROBBER.

LONDON, Feb. 6.—The police here have just been informed of the death of a few days ago at his apartment near Regent Park of Adam Worth, alias "Harry Raymond," well known in America in connection with the "Manhattan Bank" and other big robberies. Worth's name was frequently mentioned in connection with the theft of the Galesborough picture, but the London police said the rumor of his participation in that affair was never confirmed.

YOUNG MAN WANTED IN EDITORIAL ROOMS.

A young man wanted who desires to learn the newspaper business. Call at THE TRIBUNE editorial rooms.

discards

those old blackened and rusty nickel frames you are wearing and have a pair of my ten-year guaranteed gold-filled frames—price $2.00—either spectacles or eye glasses.

CHAS. H. WOOD

THE OPTICIAN
1103 Washington St., Oakland, Cal.
Look for the sign of "The Winking Eye."

$5500

Finest Home in Oakland for the money. Large Modern House of nine rooms.

LOT 50 X 100.

On Thirteenth Street near Madison.

Woodward, Watson & Co.

903 BROADWAY, OAKLAND

Logan Berry Plants

FOR

OAKLAND TRIBUNE

Tribune Publishing Company

William E. Dargie, President

WHO WAS OUR FRIEND?

The disclosure of the correspondence of the Spanish Foreign Office relative to the attempt to have the European powers, acting in concert, to interfere in behalf of Spain just prior to the late war reveals the fact that the project never at any time assumed substantial form. Spain received many polite expressions of sympathy, but in diplomacy as in business fine words butter no parsons. Expressions of sympathy could be turned to no account. They did not prevent the United States from going to war nor did they offend the Washington Government. The powers simply let Spain down as easily as possible while giving her to understand that they could render her no aid.

Austria was really the only power that really desired to intervene, and her attitude was dictated mainly by the kinship of the royal houses of Austria and Spain. It was not inspired by popular feeling. The national sentiment of Austria was not unfriendly toward the United States, but national sentiment in such cases exercises little influence in directing the foreign policy of the Empire. Great sympathy was felt for the boy King of Spain and the Queen by the royal family of Italy, but that country was not in a position to take the initiative. It all depended upon what the four great powers, Germany, France, England, and Russia, would do. They were not disposed to do anything. But the result shows that they were all furiously feeling each other with a view to action in future entanglements.

The challenge hurled at Germany from Westminister, in this connection, has been something of a boom-crash. It is shown that Germany's attitude toward the United States was fully as friendly as that of England. If there was friction at Manila between Dewey and the German Admiral it was not reflected in the attitude of the German foreign office. As it appears England did not absolutely refuse to participate in the intervention movement while Germany did refuse definitely on two occasions. Russia rejected the suggestion from the start. France was politely non-committal. Public sympathy there was with Spain, but the government was ready to follow the lead of Russia. Thus it appears that England's claim to special friendship for us during the exciting period immediately antedating the Spanish war is not borne out by the record. That she manifested her sympathy for us after the outbreak of hostilities cannot be denied, however, should anybody wish to do so. The ties of blood and speech asserted themselves when the fray began, but prior to that cold blooded calculating policy governed England's conduct.

A BACK-ACTION ARGUMENT.

The San Francisco Chamber of Commerce makes a peculiar argument in favor of retaining the law against Chinese immigration. After pointing out that trade between San Francisco and the Chinese ports has increased nearly eighty per cent. during the last ten years, the Chamber pathetically asks how this trade is to be kept and expanded if we do not open our doors to more Chinese. Now the period in which this great gain in Chinese trade was made exactly covers the time when the strictest law against Chinese immigration was in force. With Chinese absolutely excluded our commerce made great strides. Ergo, the Chamber of Commerce argues, we must let the Chinese come in or we will cease to expand our trade and lose what we have already gained. Could anything be more illogical? The argument defeats itself. If it proves anything at all, it proves that we gain Chinese trade faster when we exclude Chinese than when we allow them to come here. But all this entirely overlooks the multitude of evils their presence here entails.

Mayor Low frankly states that the Sunday liquor law cannot be enforced in New York City. As the Legislature refuses to repeal or amend the law, the situation is that the municipal administration is charged with executing a law it cannot enforce because a majority of the inhabitants of the city are opposed to it. Meanwhile Rev. Dr. Parkhurst has already placed the reform government under ban as a fraud. It is quite evident that anybody who tries to please Dr. Parkhurst must displease the great majority of New Yorkers.

Speaker Henderson's letter stating that he is opposed to tariff reduction will be welcome news to the sugar producers, who have been selected for slaughter under pretense of extending charity to the Cubans, but in reality to further the monopolistic designs of the sugar trust.

Some of the newspapers exhibit a lack of the sense of humor by taking Professor Howison seriously. No doubt the learned gentleman has other uses than enhancing the gaiety of nations, but his capacity for exciting mirth obscures any other purpose he may serve.

AN INDECENT EXHIBITION.

The attack of Senator McCumber of North Dakota on the judgment of the United States Circuit Court in the proceedings against McKenzie, Noyes and Dubose, the trio of official highlanders who made the name of justice a stench in Alaska, was extraordinary. It was indecent. Not only did he assail the Court's findings, but he covertly impeached the integrity of the presiding judge, Hon. W. W. Morrow.

The people out here do not know Senator McCumber, but they do know Judge Morrow. They know him to be a man of unimpeachable integrity, singularly fair in his rulings and broadly catholic in his views. He is held in the highest respect by all classes of citizens, and no judicial act he ever performed has been more generally commended out here, where the general public has knowledge of the facts, than his breaking up of the infamous looting combine in Alaska. That his judgment was righteous yet merciful is universally recognized.

Under the circumstances the outrageous assault made on an upright judge, in order to gloat over the rascality of a gang of remorseless scoundrels was a scandalous abuse of Senatorial privilege, and an insult to public decency and intelligence.

If Senator McCumber is an honest man how comes he to be the defender of a coterie of rascals who stand convicted of corruption in office, embezzlement and conspiracy? All the attending circumstances indicate that they crept into office with a preconceived scheme of plunder already planned and thought out. This plot embraced the Federal Judge, the United States Marshal and the Register and Receiver of the Land Office. Only the presence of an honest and determined army officer, who had a personal knowledge of the facts, by being on the ground, prevented the success of the program.

Now comes this North Dakota defender of thieves and conspirators with an impeachment of the court which exposed and punished them and a denunciation of the fearless judge who administered justice. He does this in the effort to retain in office men convicted of malfeasance, corruption and conspiracy. Senator McCumber, you are a cool cucumber.

AN ANTI-KIPLING TIRADE.*

He is but an ill-natured critic—Whatever his talents—who thinks, That the "dramatic fools at the wickets," And the "outs at the goals" and links, Are worthy the scurrilous censure He pens from his murky den.

Where he—in security hiding—Barks loud at his fellow men. On the breezy downs and the ovals, To English hearts so dear and true, Are poured the words of his sneer—The vision, strong and clear; The spirit of earnest endeavor; The force of his counsel; And, in the hour of triumph; Steadfastness in defeat.

In many a brilliant foray—In many a long campaign; In many a stubborn conflict, Which ended with death and pain; In the foremost ranks of the battle, Where the holiest offers shrink, And the "dramatic fools" from the wickets, And the "outs" from the goals and links, We leave the ill-natured critic To spin his words of rhyme, To seek the morbid feelings, And to taste of these jarring times—But England will trust her fortunes—At the force of her counsel; To the "dramatic fools" from the wickets, And the "outs" from the goals and links, —Henry Paulson, Darnell in the Philadelphia Record.

"The writer of the above cannot understand why, because a country may be at war, all athletic pursuits on the part of its citizens should be discontinued, since it is from the ranks of these her stoutest defenders are mostly drawn, and by a devotion to such exercises the preeminence of the Anglo-Saxon race is mostly due."

RHYMES OF THE DAY.

When winter sleighing is superb
Man thinks it rather rough
That he is not an octopus.
Two arms are not enough. —Chicago News.

He forced her to toe the mark;
"Twas quite a bit,
Alas! her pa did toe the mark,
But he was it. —Philadelphia Press.

Oh, he was a trusted employe,
"W! a life's security spent;
He found 'twas his lot
To be wholly forgot.
"Cause he never embezzled a cent. —Washington Star.

The small hotel that holds the fort
To heal all the tubercular,
Is simply called a health resort
In booklet and circular.

The big Italian marble pile,
With brass band and aquarium,
And stukes and golf and lots of style,
Is called a sanatorium. —Judge.

To My Youthful Valentine—
"W! a life's security spent;
So wrote a poet years ago;
Full yell he knew, the clever bard,
He'd but to wait, and she would grow.
And so to you, dear Valentine,
With laughing eyes and golden hair,
I pray you, hurry up and grow.
To womanhood; I'll meet you there.
But yet—perhaps I'd better not.
For should time prove to me unkind,
You then might say, "oh, cruel thought!"
"Why, what a queer old Valentine!"
—Thomas M. Wilson in Harper's Bazar.

W. C. T. U. MEETING.

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U. of East Oakland will be held in the Tenth Avenue Baptist Church, Friday, at 2:30 P. M. A large attendance is desired.

Pears'

the soap which began its sale in the 18th century, sold all through the 19th and is selling in the 20th.

Sells all over the world.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NOTES.

DINNERS AND DANCES ARE PLANNED FOR THE FUTURE.

The wedding of Miss Florence Rosenheim and David Morgan, whose engagement was recently announced, has been definitely set for Tuesday, February 25th.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Magee will entertain a number of friends at dinner this evening at their home at Thirteenth and Madison streets, the entire party afterwards attending the Thursday Night Assembly at Reed Hall, which promises to be a great success.

The recent card party given by Mrs. J. M. Beck at her home, 1012 Jackson street, was a most successful affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Lundborg, who have been spending some months in San Francisco, expect to return shortly to their home on Walsworth avenue, which is now being occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Mark L. Regan.

Alameda society is pleased with the announcement of the engagement of Miss Alma Sevensing, daughter of the late Henry Sevensing, the banker, to Harry Kennedy, a prominent young business man of San Francisco. It had been planned to first formally announce the betrothal at a luncheon to be given to the friends of the bride-elect some day next week at the home of her sister, Mrs. Francis Colleschott of Central avenue, but the secret escaped. Now the engaged couple are receiving congratulations from their many friends. The wedding will not occur for some time yet—perhaps a year. Miss Sevensing is a handsome brunette. She is a favorite in the younger set. Last evening Miss Sevensing was one of the bridesmaids at the Merit-Lynes wedding in St. John's Church.

The Ethel Society will give its vaudeville show at the Macdonough Theater this evening. Among those who will have large theater parties at the vaudeville performance are Mrs. A. J. White of East Oakland, Mrs. Charles H. King, Hon. and Mrs. J. A. Bliss, Mrs. Lou Gharrell, Mrs. Z. T. Gilpin, Mrs. Kate Bulkley and Mrs. B. A. Klugeel. Among those who have taken boxes are Mrs. Frank Moffitt and Mrs. W. T. Barton and guests.

The Friday Night cotton will be held at Reed Hall. Extensive preparations have been made and the affair is being eagerly looked forward to by the younger set.

Miss Lucetta Burnham will lead and will be assisted by Parker Holt, Miss May Coogan and Prentiss Selby.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Meek left Saturday for a trip through the East. They will visit Boston, New York and Chicago, and will be away some weeks.

F. Cedey receives work daily at the Latest Parisian Cleaning and Dyeing Works, 418 Fourteenth street. Dry cleaning a specialty. Telephone main 175.

SAYS HE FOLLOWED LIKE A LITTLE DOG

Rufus Freiling says he will not pay his wife's bills. He is employed by the Pacific States Manufacturing Company and lives in East Oakland. In speaking about his troubles Mr. Freiling said:

"You see it was just this way. There was too much mother-in-law in it. We were married four years ago and there are two children. Now I know it's bad for the young ones and I will take care of them, but the young lady was too independent for me. She wanted me to pay the bills and go off by myself. I couldn't stand that, though I did follow her like a little dog, and so I just pulled up stakes last night."

"I have tried to be good to her, but it was no use. She has gone her way and I shall go mine, though I know it will be hard for the children."

"What are you kicking about? She returned all your presents, didn't she?"

"Yes, but the expression amounted to more than the presents were worth!" —Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

KAHN'S—THE ALWAYS BUSY CORNER.

THE Kahn Bros.-Klein & Co. SALE

The Greatest Sale Oakland Has Ever Known

NOW ON AT

Kahn Bros.
THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE
N.E. 12th & Wash'g'n, Oakland

GOOD WORK FOR OAKLAND

JAMES L. DE FREMREY TELLS OF PROSPECTS FOR HARBOR IMPROVEMENTS.

Secretary Wilbur Walker of the Merchants' Exchange has received the following cheering news from James L. de Fremrey, who was recently asked by the Exchange to use his good offices while at Washington in helping to secure harbor improvements:

"Washington, D. C., January 27, 1902. To the Merchants' Exchange, Oakland, California—Gentlemen: In pursuance of your request that I should call upon the members of the Congressional Committee on Rivers and Harbors in Washington, in the interest of the further improvement of Oakland harbor by the Government, I have visited Washington four times, spending altogether two weeks on this work."

"It took considerable time to gather information at the War Department and elsewhere regarding other harbors, which I considered necessary, as it was important to know how much money the Government had spent upon them; what their commerce was and what their requirements were."

Thursday, February 6th

Opens Tomorrow

Third Semi-annual

REMNANT SALE

all remnants at one-half

marked price.

Taft & Pennoyer

Broadway and Fourteenth.

consider it a privilege to have been able to exert myself on behalf of our harbor. As the Alameda Board of Trade also requested me to do what I could in Washington for Oakland Harbor, I have sent them a duplicate of this letter. I remain, Gentlemen, respectfully yours,

"JAMES L. DE FREMREY."

$100 Reward $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Address,
E. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.
Sold by Druggists, 75c.
Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Be up to date. Have your shoes made to order at Platt's Custom Shoe Factory, 1033 Clay st.; phone red 232.

ONLY RELIABLE COAL DEALERS

SELL TESLA BRIQUETTES, $9.00 PER TON.

Best and cheapest fuel for kitchen and grate. A trial will convince you. Phone Main 79 about them.

Reliable Watch Repairing

C. M. Halsey, 514 1/2 Thirteenth street.

E. E. Sparhawk, Dentist,
602 Central Bank Bldg., hours 9 to 5.

Miss Flora C. Kendall,
Teacher of music, 507 Alice street, Monday, Tel. Cedar 533.

Telephone James 251 for Choice Wines and Liquors.

E. Merder, proprietor of the French Wine and Liquor Store, 874 Broadway, near Eighth street, has had a new telephone placed in his establishment to accommodate the many who order over the wires, and who want prompt service.

Have your music and magazines bound at THE TRIBUNE office.

"Brass Lamp Heaters." 75c a piece, set them on your bedroom floor heat up the room. On sale at H. Schellhaas, corner store, 11th street.

"Priest's Naps" is what you want for a fast water. Leave orders at 380 15th street.

White Enamel Beds, $2.95. Brass furnishings, all sizes. Elegant line of new bedding at H. Schellhaas.

Priest's Soda (in syphons) 80c per dozen delivered. Telephone John 638.

6c a Piece. Heavy and medium plates; regular 10c; clearing out our crockery at H. Schellhaas.

The Hammam department for ladies and gentlemen at the Piedmont Baths are the most elaborate and luxuriously fitted up of any this side of Chicago. Take Piedmont cars.

CASTORIA. The Kind You Have Always Bought. Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Williams

RACING!

Every Week Day—Rain or Shine.

NEW CALIFORNIA JOCKEY CLUB. OAKLAND RACE TRACK.

Races start at 2:15 P. M. sharp. Ferryboats leave San Francisco at 12 M and 12:30, 1:30, 2:30 and 3 P. M., connecting with trains stopping at the entrance to the track. All trains via Oakland Mole connect with San Pablo avenue electric cars at Seventh and Broadway, Oakland. Also all trains via Alameda mole connect with San Pablo avenue electric cars at Fourteenth and Broadway, Oakland. These electric cars go direct to the track in 15 minutes.

Returning—Trains leave the track at 4:15 and 4:45 P. M., and immediately after the last race.

THOMAS H. WILLIAMS JR., President,
CHAS. F. PRICE, Sec'y and Mgr.

AMUSEMENTS.

MACDONOUGH THEATER
Hall & Barton, Proprietors and Managers
Phone Main 57.
FRIDAY AND SATURDAY NIGHTS

FEBRUARY 7 AND 8,
William Greet Presents the Powerful Young Heroic Actor,

CHARLES DALTON

Supported by a Strong Company of Well Known Players in Wilson Barrett's Remarkable Drama,

THE SIGN OF THE CROSS

A Magnificent Scenic Production. New Scenery. New Costumes. Forty in the Cast.

PRICES—25, 50, 75, $1.00. Seats on sale now. Phone Main 57.

MACDONOUGH THEATRE

HALL & BARTON, Props. and Mgrs.

Monday, February 10th

The Event of the Theatrical Year

James K. Hackett's

Great Romantic Success

THE PRIDE OF JENNICO

Presented by Special Arrangement with Mr. Daniel Frohman.

ORIGINAL SCENERY, COSTUMES AND STAGE EFFECTS

— Powerful Cast —

PRICES—25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00. Seats on sale now. Phone Main 57.

The Dewey Theatre

Landers Stevens, Lessee and Manager.

THE STEVENS' AUGMENTED STOCK COMPANY.

"Monte Cristo"

Seats on Sale at Smith's Drug Store, 456 12th st., nr. B'way, and at theater.

PRICES—10c, 20c, 30c

PECK'S BROADWAY THEATRE

N. E. Cor. Broadway and 13th St.

Week Beginning Feb. 3.

MENDEL & MACK

America's Greatest Comedians.

AL. CLIFF

will sing "The Organ Grinder's Serenade."

A. E. PECK

and cast in his original sketch, "THE RIVAL LOVERS."

Change of Program Every Monday.

Performances at 2:30, 4:00, 7:30 and 9:00 p. m.

10c IS THE ADMISSION—NO HIGHER

IT OPENS THIS COMING

SATURDAY EVENING, FEB. 8TH

AT

MECHANIC'S PAVILION.

—THE—

Juvenile Fairyland Carnival.

Beautiful Booths and Exhibits. Big Stage and Electric Ballet. Specialties and Cake Walks.

Pavilion Decorated and Many Novel Features.

PACIFIC CAT CLUB'S BIG SHOW!

MANY SPECIAL SOCIETY NIGHTS.

BENNETT'S MILITARY BAND.

FAIRYLAND SIDESHOWS, SPECIAL SCENERY, ETC.

One Dollar 6-admission Transferable Ticket now on sale. Single admission, 25c; children, 10c.

Open 1 to 11 P. M. for one week. Sunday excepted.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills

Are specially prepared to act in harmony with the female system. They cure Constipation and Sick Headache, resulting from causes peculiar to women.

25c

Fostum, Co., Battle Creek, Mich. 19. Beardson, Frank Williams.

AGARD and RUSSELL & SOCIETY WEDDING IN THE ENCINAL CITY.

CASH PRICES

Sugar Corn, packed in Maine, sweet and tender, per tin 11 cents
Tomatoes, solid pack, the best California product, full 3 lb. tin 10 cents

Lea & Perrins' Worcestershire Sauce; quarts 75 cents, pints 45 cents, 1/2 pints 25 cents.
Evaporated Cream, unsweetened, Pet brand, 3 tins for 25 cents

Table Fruits, packed by J. H. Flickinger at San Jose; finest dessert fruit in heavy syrup, 3 lb. tins for 25 cents

Raisins, dessert clusters, prime quality, 3 lbs. for 25 cents
Cottolene, 2 lbs. 23 cents; 4 lbs. 45 cents; 10 lbs. $1.20
Potatoes, fancy burbank, per hundred pounds $2.00

Pineapple, Singapore, cubes or sliced, per tin 10 cents
Iowa sweet corn, a good whole-some article, 3 tins for 25 cents

Asparagus, Bouldin Island, usually 25 cents, we quote 20 cents
Condensed milk, Pansy brand, 3 tins for 25 cents

Ripe Olives, crescents, full flavor, per quart 25 cents

475-479 FOURTEENTH STREET
Tel. Main 24.
Sole Agents for BALDWIN BUTTER.

ROUTINE WORK OF THE CITY COUNCIL.

Aside from the proceeding connected with the fixing of water rates for the ensuing year, the City Council at its special meeting last evening transacted very little business. There were communications before that body and they were read by City Clerk Church and referred to committees as follows:

From E. C. Robinson for an electric light at East Oak and Persimmon avenues. Referred to the Street Light Committee.

From Board of Public Works referring following claims: W. Healey, $12.12; Sunset Telephone and Telegraph Company, $12.33; J. H. Barry Company, $25. Referred to Auditing and Finance Committee.

From City Attorney Johnson in regard to suits against the Central Pacific Railroad. Referred to the Committee of the Whole will also hold a session.

PRISONER'S PLEA MAY NOW BE SET ASIDE.

M. L. Overliss pleaded guilty this morning in the Police Court to petty larceny. He was accused of stealing a dog from C. Christensen, a saloon-keeper.

Overliss, in his own behalf, said he stumbled over the dog so often that he took it away and hid it. If his story is substantiated it is probable his plea of guilty will be set aside.

NOTES FROM ELMHURST.

ELMHURST, Feb. 6.—Miss Mary Brown of this place is arranging for an entertainment which will be given at Red Men's Hall on the evening of Washington's birthday, February 22. The entertainment will consist of a Brownie Show. Some thirty little children will take part, attired in the costumes of the original Brownies. The affair promises to be a great drawing card.

Sander's E. M. Allen of the Haywards line has just purchased a fine thoroughbred horse. The animal is of pedigree stock and was secured at a bargain. Mr. Allen is confident that he has secured a fine specimen and may put him on the track.

Phillip Farlin, a motorman on the Third Street line, who resides in this place, is the proud father of a baby boy.

A new butcher shop will be opened in this place shortly. The new establishment will be located in the Willow block.

Cured of Piles, Saved From Knife.

Mrs. Aaron Medron of Savannah, Ga., writes: "Ever since the birth of my first child, six years ago, I have suffered greatly from piles. I could not bring myself to bear the thoughts of a surgical operation. Pyramid Pile Cure entirely cured me. For sale by all druggists. 'Piles, Causes and Cure' mailed free. Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich.

WEALTHY WOMAN IS SENT TO PRISON.

Mrs. Josephine Dyce, the wealthy East Oakland woman who was convicted of begging, was today sentenced to thirty days in the County Jail.

Mrs. Dyce has a valuable house and large lot in East Oakland and a bank account of good proportions. She was making a house to house canvass soliciting alms.

POLICE COURT.

Police Court, Feb. 6.—Andrew Jackson, drunk, $5 or three days; Frank Lathrop, violating sleeping ordinance, Dominik Switzky, Helen Switzky, petty larceny, contemned to February 7 for trial; M. L. Overliss, petty larceny, February 7 for sentence.

Mrs. Josephine Dyce, beggling, thirty days; Henry Tumbler, assault with deadly weapon, on trial; Mrs. L. Jacques, vagrancy, on trial; Mrs. A. D. Jones, miscellaneous, March 3 for trial.

NO ARGUMENT NEEDED

Every Sufferer from Catarrh Knows that Salves, Lotions, Washes, Sprays and Douches Do Not Cure.

Powders, lotions, salves, sprays and inhalers cannot really cure Catarrh, because this disease is a blood disease, and local applications, if they accomplish anything at all, simply give transient relief.

The catarrhal poison is in the blood and the mucous membrane of the nose, throat and trachea tries to relieve the system by secreting large quantities of mucus, thus discharging some part of the mucus nostrils, dropping into the throat, causing deafness by closing the Eustachian tubes, and after a time causing catarrh of stomach or serious throat and lung troubles.

A remedy to really cure catarrh must be an internal remedy which will cleanse the blood from catarrhal poison and remove the fever and congestion from the mucous membrane.

This best and most modern remedy for this purpose is antiseptic, scientifically known as Eucalyptol, Guaiac, Sanguinaria and Hydrastin, and while each of these have been successfully used separately, yet it has been difficult to get them all combined in one palatable, convenient and efficient form.

W. H. L. Hynes, the Popular Attorney Weds Miss Pauline Merle—Many Friends at the Church.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was that which took place in St. Joseph's Church, Alameda, last night, in which William H. L. Hynes, the young attorney of this city, was married to Miss Pauline Merle of the encinal.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. A. Foley, pastor of the church. It was witnessed by a thronged auditorium, and among the onlookers were people distinguished in social and professional life in all the cities around the bay.

The ceremony was set for 8 o'clock, but long before that hour the sacred edifice was filled with people. The interval, however, before the arrival of the bride party was pleasantly filled in with voluntaries on the organ by Miss Elizabeth Westgate, who played in a most charming manner, and with duets in which Miss Westgate and J. R. Lewis took part, the latter playing on the violin in a most artistic manner. Among the selections rendered were the "Wedding Chorus" from "Lohengrin," the Swedish "Wedding March," Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" and "Believe Me, if All Those Embracing Young Charming."

At the conclusion of the ceremony, the bride and groom repaired to the home of the bride's parents, northwest corner of Walnut street and Alameda avenue, where a reception was held.

The bride was radiant and beautiful in a gown of white satin with a tulle veil. She wore a sunburst of diamonds, the gift of the groom. The veil and wreath were garnished with the same orange blossoms which the bride's mother wore when she, too, was led as a bride to the altar.

The bride carried a shower bouquet of white lilies of the valley.

Miss Foster, the maid of honor, wore a white point d'esprit gown and carried bride roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Seveling and Miss Wessendorf, were gowned in pink crepe de chine and carried bouquets of maidenhair fern.

Mr. and Mrs. Hynes left last night for the South, where they will spend their honeymoon. After their return they will reside in this city.

Mr. Hynes is one of the most brilliant of the younger members of the bar. He has served with distinction as Assistant District Attorney and is now in the private practice of his profession in San Francisco.

The bride is one of the fairest of Alameda's pretty girls. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Merle, and is esteemed and loved by all who know her.

Mr. and Mrs. Hynes were made the recipients of a wealth of rich and useful wedding gifts, the grateful tributes of a number of devoted friends.

After her came the bride unattended. Just as the bride party reached the transept, the groom, W. H. L. Hynes, with his best man, Frank Barnett, emerged from the vestry. They were followed by Rev. P. A. Foley, pastor of the church, and a couple of acolytes. The groom and best man crossed the sanctuary, the former taking a place beside the bride and the best man standing on the right of Mr. Hynes.

The clergyman halted at the entrance to the sanctuary and read, in an impressive manner, the marriage formula of the Catholic Church. During the progress of the ceremony, the organ intoned, pianissimo, and with rare delicacy, Moore's "Believe Me, if All Those Embracing Young Charming."

At the conclusion of the ceremony, the bride and groom repaired to the home of the bride's parents, northwest corner of Walnut street and Alameda avenue, where a reception was held.

The bride was radiant and beautiful in a gown of white satin with a tulle veil. She wore a sunburst of diamonds, the gift of the groom. The veil and wreath were garnished with the same orange blossoms which the bride's mother wore when she, too, was led as a bride to the altar.

The bride carried a shower bouquet of white lilies of the valley.

Miss Foster, the maid of honor, wore a white point d'esprit gown and carried bride roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Seveling and Miss Wessendorf, were gowned in pink crepe de chine and carried bouquets of maidenhair fern.

Mr. and Mrs. Hynes left last night for the South, where they will spend their honeymoon. After their return they will reside in this city.

Mr. Hynes is one of the most brilliant of the younger members of the bar. He has served with distinction as Assistant District Attorney and is now in the private practice of his profession in San Francisco.

The bride is one of the fairest of Alameda's pretty girls. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Merle, and is esteemed and loved by all who know her.

Mr. and Mrs. Hynes were made the recipients of a wealth of rich and useful wedding gifts, the grateful tributes of a number of devoted friends.

After her came the bride unattended. Just as the bride party reached the transept, the groom, W. H. L. Hynes, with his best man, Frank Barnett, emerged from the vestry. They were followed by Rev. P. A. Foley, pastor of the church, and a couple of acolytes. The groom and best man crossed the sanctuary, the former taking a place beside the bride and the best man standing on the right of Mr. Hynes.

The clergyman halted at the entrance to the sanctuary and read, in an impressive manner, the marriage formula of the Catholic Church. During the progress of the ceremony, the organ intoned, pianissimo, and with rare delicacy, Moore's "Believe Me, if All Those Embracing Young Charming."

At the conclusion of the ceremony, the bride and groom repaired to the home of the bride's parents, northwest corner of Walnut street and Alameda avenue, where a reception was held.

The bride was radiant and beautiful in a gown of white satin with a tulle veil. She wore a sunburst of diamonds, the gift of the groom. The veil and wreath were garnished with the same orange blossoms which the bride's mother wore when she, too, was led as a bride to the altar.

The bride carried a shower bouquet of white lilies of the valley.

Miss Foster, the maid of honor, wore a white point d'esprit gown and carried bride roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Seveling and Miss Wessendorf, were gowned in pink crepe de chine and carried bouquets of maidenhair fern.

Mr. and Mrs. Hynes left last night for the South, where they will spend their honeymoon. After their return they will reside in this city.

Mr. Hynes is one of the most brilliant of the younger members of the bar. He has served with distinction as Assistant District Attorney and is now in the private practice of his profession in San Francisco.

The bride is one of the fairest of Alameda's pretty girls. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Merle, and is esteemed and loved by all who know her.

Mr. and Mrs. Hynes were made the recipients of a wealth of rich and useful wedding gifts, the grateful tributes of a number of devoted friends.

After her came the bride unattended. Just as the bride party reached the transept, the groom, W. H. L. Hynes, with his best man, Frank Barnett, emerged from the vestry. They were followed by Rev. P. A. Foley, pastor of the church, and a couple of acolytes. The groom and best man crossed the sanctuary, the former taking a place beside the bride and the best man standing on the right of Mr. Hynes.

The clergyman halted at the entrance to the sanctuary and read, in an impressive manner, the marriage formula of the Catholic Church. During the progress of the ceremony, the organ intoned, pianissimo, and with rare delicacy, Moore's "Believe Me, if All Those Embracing Young Charming."

At the conclusion of the ceremony, the bride and groom repaired to the home of the bride's parents, northwest corner of Walnut street and Alameda avenue, where a reception was held.

The bride was radiant and beautiful in a gown of white satin with a tulle veil. She wore a sunburst of diamonds, the gift of the groom. The veil and wreath were garnished with the same orange blossoms which the bride's mother wore when she, too, was led as a bride to the altar.

The bride carried a shower bouquet of white lilies of the valley.

Miss Foster, the maid of honor, wore a white point d'esprit gown and carried bride roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Seveling and Miss Wessendorf, were gowned in pink crepe de chine and carried bouquets of maidenhair fern.

Mr. and Mrs. Hynes left last night for the South, where they will spend their honeymoon. After their return they will reside in this city.

Mr. Hynes is one of the most brilliant of the younger members of the bar. He has served with distinction as Assistant District Attorney and is now in the private practice of his profession in San Francisco.

The bride is one of the fairest of Alameda's pretty girls. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Merle, and is esteemed and loved by all who know her.

Mr. and Mrs. Hynes were made the recipients of a wealth of rich and useful wedding gifts, the grateful tributes of a number of devoted friends.

After her came the bride unattended. Just as the bride party reached the transept, the groom, W. H. L. Hynes, with his best man, Frank Barnett, emerged from the vestry. They were followed by Rev. P. A. Foley, pastor of the church, and a couple of acolytes. The groom and best man crossed the sanctuary, the former taking a place beside the bride and the best man standing on the right of Mr. Hynes.

The clergyman halted at the entrance to the sanctuary and read, in an impressive manner, the marriage formula of the Catholic Church. During the progress of the ceremony, the organ intoned, pianissimo, and with rare delicacy, Moore's "Believe Me, if All Those Embracing Young Charming."

At the conclusion of the ceremony, the bride and groom repaired to the home of the bride's parents, northwest corner of Walnut street and Alameda avenue, where a reception was held.

The bride was radiant and beautiful in a gown of white satin with a tulle veil. She wore a sunburst of diamonds, the gift of the groom. The veil and wreath were garnished with the same orange blossoms which the bride's mother wore when she, too, was led as a bride to the altar.

The bride carried a shower bouquet of white lilies of the valley.

Miss Foster, the maid of honor, wore a white point d'esprit gown and carried bride roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Seveling and Miss Wessendorf, were gowned in pink crepe de chine and carried bouquets of maidenhair fern.

Mr. and Mrs. Hynes left last night for the South, where they will spend their honeymoon. After their return they will reside in this city.

Mr. Hynes is one of the most brilliant of the younger members of the bar. He has served with distinction as Assistant District Attorney and is now in the private practice of his profession in San Francisco.

The bride is one of the fairest of Alameda's pretty girls. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Merle, and is esteemed and loved by all who know her.

Mr. and Mrs. Hynes were made the recipients of a wealth of rich and useful wedding gifts, the grateful tributes of a number of devoted friends.

After her came the bride unattended. Just as the bride party reached the transept, the groom, W. H. L. Hynes, with his best man, Frank Barnett, emerged from the vestry. They were followed by Rev. P. A. Foley, pastor of the church, and a couple of acolytes. The groom and best man crossed the sanctuary, the former taking a place beside the bride and the best man standing on the right of Mr. Hynes.

The clergyman halted at the entrance to the sanctuary and read, in an impressive manner, the marriage formula of the Catholic Church. During the progress of the ceremony, the organ intoned, pianissimo, and with rare delicacy, Moore's "Believe Me, if All Those Embracing Young Charming."

At the conclusion of the ceremony, the bride and groom repaired to the home of the bride's parents, northwest corner of Walnut street and Alameda avenue, where a reception was held.

The bride was radiant and beautiful in a gown of white satin with a tulle veil. She wore a sunburst of diamonds, the gift of the groom. The veil and wreath were garnished with the same orange blossoms which the bride's mother wore when she, too, was led as a bride to the altar.

The bride carried a shower bouquet of white lilies of the valley.

Miss Foster, the maid of honor, wore a white point d'esprit gown and carried bride roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Seveling and Miss Wessendorf, were gowned in pink crepe de chine and carried bouquets of maidenhair fern.

Mr. and Mrs. Hynes left last night for the South, where they will spend their honeymoon. After their return they will reside in this city.

Mr. Hynes is one of the most brilliant of the younger members of the bar. He has served with distinction as Assistant District Attorney and is now in the private practice of his profession in San Francisco.

The bride is one of the fairest of Alameda's pretty girls. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Merle, and is esteemed and loved by all who know her.

Mr. and Mrs. Hynes were made the recipients of a wealth of rich and useful wedding gifts, the grateful tributes of a number of devoted friends.

After her came the bride unattended. Just as the bride party reached the transept, the groom, W. H. L. Hynes, with his best man, Frank Barnett, emerged from the vestry. They were followed by Rev. P. A. Foley, pastor of the church, and a couple of acolytes. The groom and best man crossed the sanctuary, the former taking a place beside the bride and the best man standing on the right of Mr. Hynes.

The clergyman halted at the entrance to the sanctuary and read, in an impressive manner, the marriage formula of the Catholic Church. During the progress of the ceremony, the organ intoned, pianissimo, and with rare delicacy, Moore's "Believe Me, if All Those Embracing Young Charming."

At the conclusion of the ceremony, the bride and groom repaired to the home of the bride's parents, northwest corner of Walnut street and Alameda avenue, where a reception was held.

The bride was radiant and beautiful in a gown of white satin with a tulle veil. She wore a sunburst of diamonds, the gift of the groom. The veil and wreath were garnished with the same orange blossoms which the bride's mother wore when she, too, was led as a bride to the altar.

The bride carried a shower bouquet of white lilies of the valley.

35c Ribbons, 22c

For Friday and Saturday only, a specially bought lot of 1,000 yards of fine quality Sash Taffeta Ribbon, 4 inches wide, in such desirable colorings as white, pink, blue, violet, cardinal, cream, turquoise, Nile and old rose; the correct width and style for hair, neck and corsage bows; good value at 35c per yard; special price... 22c

Men's Hose
150 dozen Men's fancy Hose, in dropstitch and lace effects, in blue and black, and polka dot and figured, all swell up-to-date patterns, regular 25c per pair socks, which we bought at a special price and which enables us to say Friday 17c only, per pair.

Men's Underwear
Men's fleece-lined Underwear; good quality, soft finish, pretty blue and white striped effects; very slightly garments that will give good wear, regular 75c each, on Friday... 49c

Sale of Shoes
MISSIES' AND CHILDREN'S HEALTHFUL RUBBER HEBELED SHOES—On special sale, Friday and Saturday. It has been demonstrated that rubber shoes prevent spinal trouble and other diseases incident to growing children, and render walking easy and healthful. This particular lot of rubber heel shoes is neat in appearance and serviceable; best quality of box calf, with new style toe and tip and extension soles; to introduce them we quote these prices for Friday and Saturday only:

11½ to 2, regularly $1.15, for $1.43
$2 to 11, regularly $1.50, for $1.22

Papeterie, 7c
A neat box of good quality writing paper, either ruled or plain, in cream color only; 24 sheets of paper and 25 envelopes; on special sale Friday... 7c

Boudoir Clock, 98c.
A lot of pretty hand-painted Boudoir Clocks in an assortment of decorations; clocks that stand 5 inches high and guaranteed good time pieces; on special sale Friday only; each... 98c

75c Underw'r, 56c.
Today and Saturday, we offer 60 dozen Ladies' Jersey Ribbed Wool Vests and Pants; the vests high neck and long sleeves, the pants ankle length; in cream only; a quality that has never been sold for less than 75c per garment, at... 56c

Fruit Bowl, 59c.
A large (10 inch) fine imitation of cut glass Orange or Fruit Bowl, large enough, in fact, to use as a punch bowl; a splendid value at $1.00 each; 150 of them on special sale Friday only 59c

UNITARIANS HOLD A MINSTREL SHOW.

Bright Young Men Have a Merry Time in the Encinal City.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 6.—The Unitarian minstrel club gave an entertainment at Armory Hall last night before a packed house. The entertainment was one of the most interesting and successful affairs ever given in Alameda.

Following is the program as rendered: Interlocutor, Hon. Jay Are No Land; Jones-Lew Dock Templeman, Doc Kendall, A. P. A. Smiley; tambours—Herr Bert Clark, Sandow Bennett, O. O. (olive oil), Gorgeous Whitley.

1. Opening chorus and orchestra (a) "Military Man", chorus (b) "De Messenger Boy"; Male Quartet; (c) "Mr. Shakespeare", chorus; (d) "Im Tired", end song.

2. Song, "Melancholy Mose", A. P. A. Smiley.

3. Tenor solo, "Eddie Dear" (Brown), Mr. E. D. Crandall.

4. "Jarry and the Merry-go-Round", Herr Bert Clark.

5. Song, "You Can't Keep the World From Going Round", Gorgeous Whitley.

6. "De Camp Town Races", Sandow Bennett, O. O.

7. Burlesque solo, selected, Mr. Lowell Redfield.

8. "Cackle, Cackle, Cackle", Lew Dock Templeman.

9. "If That's Society, Excuse Me", Doc Kendall.

10. Medley: Coon songs, entire company.

PART II.

1. Overture, medley of popular airs, orchestra.

2. Acrobatic specialties, Leandro Bros. (San Francisco Olympic Club).

3. Monologue specialties (a la Dock-stader), L. R. Hare, A. P. A. Smiley.

4. Old man quartet specialty, W. K. Scott.

5. Big four quartet—E. D. Crandall, E. M. McCandlish, Lowell Redfield, Dr. H. P. Carlton.

6. Colored Debating Club; question, "Resolved, That the Water Haul Produced More Womans Dan de Land", Dr. Scott.

7. Banjo and song specialties, Lew Dock Templeman.

8. Dazzling and captivating final—Herr Bert Clark, Sandow Bennett, O. O. (olive oil), Gorgeous Whitley.

9. The Unitarian Club Minstrel Troupe is composed as follows: Official staff—General Impresario and Stage Director, Doc Kendall; Scott; Musical Director, A. P. A. Smiley; Musical Director, Sandy T. Stewart; Accompanist, King William I. Stage Carpenter, Supply Green; Woods, Electrician, Hil Voltago; Sparks; Property Man, Charles See Hutz; Mistress of Wardrobe, Papinta Phelps; Treasurer (no bills accepted tonight), Lew Shannon.

Orchestra—A. T. Stewart, leader; Will King, Henry Levinson, Percy J. Brown, A. B. Voltago, Dr. Maurice V. Brown, C. C. Youngberg, A. G. Dexter, Harry Colby, Barytone soloist, Robert Lloyd; Tenor soloist, E. D. Crandall; Male Quartet, L. R. Hare, A. P. A. Smiley, Herr Bert Clark, Hon. J. R. Knowland, E. D. Crandall, W. K. Scott, A. P. A. Smiley, Mr. N. B. Frisbie, W. B. Rabson, L. D. Templeman, Sandow Bennett, O. O. (olive oil), Gorgeous Whitley.

The program also contains this obscure intimation: "All ladies, except those who are bald-headed, are politely requested to remove their hats."

WILL ENFORCE LAW.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 6.—The local police department has declared war against all violators of the expatriation ordinance. The officers have strict orders to arrest all persons expatriating on the sidewalks of the city. This morning Officer Keyes arrested Domingo Garedo, a Portuguese, for expatriating on the sidewalk of a narrow gauge car. Garedo was brought before Judge Morris and his hearing was set for next Tuesday at 10 A. M.

BOY IS ON TRIAL.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 6.—The case of Robert Kierman, one of the four boys who were arrested for holding up a Japanese girl, was brought up in Justice Morris' court yesterday. The entire session was spent securing a jury and the trial will be continued on Friday at 2 P. M. The prosecution was represented by Deputy Moore from the District Attorney's office. He was assisted by Attorney L. S. Church, who has been retained by the Japanese Union of San Francisco. The charge against Kierman is battery.

NEW RAILROAD STATION.

BREKRELEY, Feb. 6.—Woodward, Cushman & Co. have deeded to the Southern Pacific Company a strip of land, 20x24 feet, on Third near Gilman street, which is to be used as a site for a railroad depot at the terminus of the proposed extension of the West Berkeley line.

The site is adjacent to the new furniture factory. Arrangements have already been made by the railroad company to run trains during the morning and evening hours.

THEY PLEADED NOT GUILTY.

Dominick and Helen Switzky, who are accused of defrauding W. H. Aylor out of $30, were arraigned in the Police Court this morning on a charge of petty larceny.

They pleaded not guilty and will be tried by jury on February 7. They have furnished bail.

The expenses of coming to the City to shop are small in comparison with the savings that it is possible to make in San Francisco's largest shopping place.

THE EMPORIUM

California's Largest—America's Grandest Store.

Special Sale of Tickets To Juvenile Fairland Carnival, Mechanics' Pavilion